called at the Bureau on 3/10/66 and expressed concern over what they termed a close liaison between Sparticist and the Deacons of Defense and Justice, Incorporated.

_b7€ 107D;

said that his sources had indicated that Sparticist is collaborating with and helping to finance the Deacons of Defense and Justice, Incorporated. He noted also that Sparticist had made frequent favorable references to Robert F. Williams. Williams is a Negro racist who fled to Cuba in August, 1961, to avoid a hidnepping trial and is now a Bureau fugitive. He has since carried on a violently anti-United States propaganda campaign through. a radio program called "Radio Free Dixie," which is broadcast into the southern part of the United States from Cuba, and through the publication of a newsletter entitled "The Crusader," which is introduced into the United States through a source in Toronto, Canada.

speculated that Sparticist may be receiving funds from Cuba through Williams and he wanted to know if Williams' broadcasts revealed any favorable comments regarding Sparticist and the Deacons of Defense and Justice, Incompracted, in Louisiana. He wondered if any public cource laterial, was available concerning the above.

DEACONS OF DEFENSE AND JUSTICE, INCORPORATED (EDJ)

The source mentioned in this memorandum has furnished reliable information in the past.

"The Sunday Star", a weekly Washington, D. C., newspaper, issued February 27, 1966, page B-5, had an article captioned "Negroes Plan Armed Unit On Rights". The article stated the "Deacons for Deleuse and Justice" (DDJ), planned to form an armed chapter of the DDJ in Washington, D. C., with Julius Mouson, leader of a Washington organization called Associated Community Teams (ACT), as acting coordinator of the new chapter of This had been announced at a meeting held in Radac Station WUST Music Hall, Washington, D. C., on Februar, Au, 1966.

The March 13, 1966, issue of "The Washington Post", a weekly Washington, D. C., newspaper, on page B-6, had an article captioned "Brutality, Laid To Police By Pickets".

The above article reported that eight members of the Washington, D. C., group of ACT, picketed the Fifth Precinct, 500 E Street, S. E., of the Matropolitan Police Department (MPD), on March 12, 1966. Julius Hobson, Chairman of ACT led the pickets and according to the article, stated the eight pickets were ACT members and that two of them also belonged to "Deacons For Defense". The two "Deacons" were helping the forming of a Washington chapter to protest police brutality, according to Mobson's comments.

On March 15, 1966, a source advised that Julius Hobson, Chairman of the Washington, D. C., chapter of ACT is of the following opinion regarding the "Deacons For #### Defense" mentioned in the two newspaper articles:

Some of the comments made on February 26, 1966, at the rally sponsored by ACT at the WUST Radio Hall were deliberately made to create the impression that the "Deacons For Defense" would organize in Washington, D. C., with Hobson as acting coordinator. There is no "Deacons For Defense" organization in Washington, D. C, nor is such a group to be organized in D. C. An understanding to that fact exists between Ernesta Thomas, a leader of the "Deacons For Defense", Chicago, Illinois, and Jillius W. Hobson. Thomas would like to organize such a group in D. C. but will abide by Hobson's desires that the Deacons stay out of the D. C. area. Hobson does not want a group that advocates arming its members.

The source stated further as follows:

Julius Hobson was one of the eight ACT pickets who marched in front of the Firth Precinct Station of the MPD, on March 12, 1966, protesting police brutality in Precinct Number Five. Hobson was very angry concerning the incorrect information attributed to Hobson in the "Washington Post" issue of March 13, 1966, page B-J. The article indicated Hobson had said two of the eight ACT members were members of the "Deacons For Defense" and were to form a Washington chapter of the "Deacons For Defense". Hobson denied ever making such a statement to a newsman or anyone else. Hobson stated ACT, to his knowledge, has no members who belong to "Deacons For Defense" of which Ernest Thomas is an organizer.

The source also recalled as follows:

Recently a Negro family in MPD Precinct Number Five, had a wedding reception. Members of the MPD forced their way into the reception and created a disturbance while making arrests. This resulted in accusations that the MPD used brutality. "High Up" orficials of the MPD then refused to hold a hearing to determine whether the police were at fault. The general feeling among Negroes is that the MPD should have an open hearing regarding the foregoing incident in order to bring out the true facts. The Negroes in the MPD Precinct Number Five, feel the MPD officials have "white washed" the entire incident. ACT plans to demonstrate at Precinct Number Five on March 19, 1966, in furtherance of ACT's protest against the "police brutality" as displayed at the wedding reception. The protests will continue until the MPD agrees to discuss "Police Brutality".

ACT does not desire a large number of pickets at Precinct Number Five. A large group is difficult to control and could get out of hand. ACT desires that only ACT members, willing to abide by Hobson, will be welcome to future picket lines.

The source also stated as follows:

The references to ACT and Deacons For Decembe on the signs carried by the ACT pickets on March 12, 1966, were made to create a feeling that the "Deacons" are coming to D. C. to organize. This hint of possible alliance was deliberate and psychological which had the approval of Ernest Thomas. It does not exist. Hobson believes these himss may bring about changes in the attitudes displayed by the privileged toward those less fortunate as it regards jobs, housing, freedom from police brutality.

(C)

THOMAS, Vice President and Regional Organizer of the Deacons of Defense and Justice, Incorporated (DDJ), was the speaker at the meeting of the Friday Night Scrialist Yearn (FNSF) held on February 18, 1966, at Chicago, Illinois.

THOMAS stated that the DDJ was formed at demonstrate Louisiana, in July, 1964, for the purpose of protecting Congress of Racial Equality (CORH) and Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) workers in Louisiana who were being beaten and sometimes murdered by the "red necked sheriffs." THOMAS said that in one week the DDJ had 500 armed Negroes.

THOMAS referred to the Civil Rights demonstrations as a "game" and said that he cannot understand people who demonstrate for their rights and said they should take what is rightfully theirs. THOMAS did not specifically mention how people should take what is rightfully theirs.

THOMAS said that the anti-poverty legislation was enacted just to placate and "sugar coat" the Negro. The only people who will benefit from this legislation are the "fat politicians; they get the cream while the masses get the non-fat milk." He ridiculed education as being the solution of the Negro problem because he knows that pary Negroes with college degrees are nothing but janitors.

THOMAS claimed that 50 per cent of the soldiers in Viet Nam are Negroes and stated "I quess the power structure feels if they can kill off seven or eight illier of us that will solve the problem." The power structure ought to arm the Negroes in the South and solve the problems there before taking on international problems.

THOMAS stated that he foresees a black revolution in Chicago this summer and that the Federal Government be to do something to solve the problems of the Negroes or it will not be safe for white people to go through Negro neighborhood he mentioned the Watts Riots in Los Angeles and said the Jews were exploiting the Negroes, and the Negroes probably bornes stores and records so that the Jews would not know what Negroes owed money to them.

SC

"The Sunday Star," a weekly Wishington, D.C., newspaper, issued February 27, 1966, page B-5, had an article captioned "Negroes Plan Armed Unit On Rights."
The article stated the "Deacons for Defense and Justice" (DDJ), planned to form an armed chapter of the DDJ in Washington, D.C., with JULIUS HOBSON, leader of a Washington organization called Associated Community Teams (ACT), as acting coordinator of the new chapter of DDJ. This had been announced at a meeting held in Radio Station WUST Music Hall, Washington, D.C., on February 26, 1966.

The March 13, 1966 issue of "The Washington Post," a weekly Washington, D.C., newspaper, on page B-6, had an article captioned "Brutality, Laid To Police By Pickets."

The above article reported that eight members of the Washington, D.C., group of ACT, picketed the matter. Precinct, 500 E Street, S.E., of the Metropolitan Police Department (MPD), on March 12, 1966. JULIUS HOBSON, Chairman of ACT led the pickets and according to the article, stated the eight pickets were ACT members and that two of them also belonged to "Deacons For Defense." The two "Deacons" were helping the forming of a Washington chapter to procest police brutality, according to HOBSON's comments.

HOBSON, Chairman of the Washington, D.C., chapter of ACT is of the following opinion regarding the "Deacons For Defense" mentioned in the two newspaper articles:

Some of the comments made on February 26, 1966, at the rally sponsored by ACT at the WUST Radio Hall were deliberately made to create the impression that the "Dracons For Defense" would organize in Washington, D.C., with HOBSON as acting coordinator. There is no "Deacons For Defense" organization in Washington, D.C., nor is such a group to be organized in D.C. An understanding to that facts exists between ERNEST THOMAS, a leader of the "Deacons For Defense," Chicago, Illinois, and JULIUS W. HOBSON. THOMAS would Play to organize such a group in D.C., but will abide by HOBSON's desires that the Deacons stay out of the D.C. area. HOBSON does not want a group that advocates arming its members.

The source stated further as follows and Chill

who marched in front of the Fifth Precinct Station of the MPD, on March 12, 1966, protesting police brutality in Precinct Number Five. HOBSON was very angry concerning the incorrect information attributed to HOBSON in the "Washington Post" issue of March 13, 1966, page B-6 The article indicated HOBSON had said two of the eight ACT members were members of the "Deacons For Defense" and were to form a Washington chapter of the "Deacons For Defense." HOBSON denied ever making such a statement to a newsman or anyone else. HOBSON stated ACT, to his knowledge, has no nembers who belong to "Deacons For Defense" of which ERNEST TROMAS is an organizer.

. The source also recalled as follows:

Recently a Negro family in MPD Precitat Number Five, had a wedding receiption. Members of the MPD forced their way into the reception and created a disturbance while making arrests. This resulted in accusations that the MPD used brutality. "High Up" officials of the MPD then refused to hold a hearing to determine whether the police were at fault. The general feeling among Negroes is that the MPD should have an open hearing regarding the foregoing incident in order to bring out the true facts. The Negroes in the MPD Precinct Number Five, feel the MPD officials have "white washed" the entire incident. ACT plans to demonstrate at Precinct Number Five on March 19, 1966, and furtherance of ACT's protest against the "police brutelity" as displayed at the wedding reception. The protests will continue until the MPD agrees to discuss "Police Brutality."

ACT does not desire a large number of pickets at Precinct Number Five. A large group is difficult to comtrot and could get out of hand. ACT desires that only ACT members, willing to abide by HOBSON, will be welcome to future picket lines.

The source also stated as follows:

The references to ACT and Deacons For Defense on the signs carried by the ACT pickets on March 12, 1966, were made to create a feeling that the "Deacons" are coming to D.C. to_organize.

 This hint of possible alliance was deliberate and psychologic which had the approval of ERNEST THOMAS. It does not exist. hORSON believes these hints may bring about changes in the attitudes displayed by the privileged toward those less fortunate as it regards jobs, housing, freedom from police brutality.

NATION OF ISLAM, Formerly Referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, Aka. Muhammad's Temples of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation Islam" and Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On May 7, 1965, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHA NAI is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Ullimois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1 of MUHAMMAD and other NOI officials, when referring to MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using elther "Missour Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Estam."

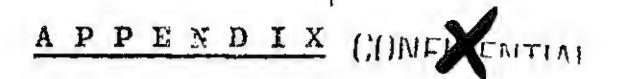

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was original organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by Allah, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Acts and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MARAIMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On May 3, 1965, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had, early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his program.

On November 3, 1964, a source made available a document entitled "The Revolutionary Action Movement Manifesto," the document having been obtained by the source from an individual known to be a member of the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM).

This document stated, in part, that RAM was officially organized in the winter of 1963 by Afro-Americans who support the revolutionary objectives of Robert F. Williams, now residing in Cuba, and his concepthof organized vaclence to achieve the liberation of the Afro-American people in the United States. This Manifesto disclosed that RAM had oriented its program to one of education and political revolution and the organization of a "black" political party with revolutionary objectives, having recognized the need for a "black revolution" that could and would seize power. RAM philsoophy is described in this document as one of revolutionary nationalism, that is, one involving the struggles of the nonwhite races of the world against exploitation and enslavement by the white capitalist and imperialist nations.

Regarding Williams, it should be noted that on August 28, 1961, a Federal warrant was issued at Charlotta, North Carolina, charging him with Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for the crime of kidnapping. Subsequent to the issuance of this warrant, Williams fled the United States to Cuba, where he now publishes a monthly newsletter enuntled "The Crusader" from Havana.

This source in September, 1964, advised RAM is decicated to the overthrow of the capitalist system in the United States, by violence if necessary, and to its replacement by a socialistic system oriented toward the Chinese Communist interpretation of Marxism-Leninism. RAM is entirely nonwhite in membership, clandestine in nature, and owes its primary allegiance to the "Bandung World," that is, the nonewhite races of the world rather than to any national entity, as such.

REVOLUTIONARY ACTION MOVEMENT

On November 16, 1964, a second source advised he learned recently from a RAM member that the organization begain Detroit, Michigan, largely under the impetus of Don Freeman described as the "Father" of RAM and referred to as RAM's "Black Stalin." Freeman served as RAM Chairman, with Maxwell's Stanford, now of New York City, formerly of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, serving as RAM Field Chairman.

This source stated in May, 1965, there has been no formal headquarters, as such, for RAM but that headquarters have been with Freeman since he has played such a dominant role in the leadership of and has directed the policies and activities of the organization.

Within recent months, according to the second source, dissension within RAM has become evident and some dissatisfaction with Freeman's leadership has arisen. So far as is known, however, he remains the titular leader of RAM.

To date, according to the second source in May, 1965, RAM has organized units and membership in several of the larger cities in the United States east of the Mississippl River, and the organization is currently active in attempting to recruit new members and expand its sphere of influence.

REVOLUTIONARY COMMITTEE OF THE FOURTH INTERNATIONAL

A source advised on September 9, 1964, that the Revolutionary Committee of the Fourth International (RCFI) was also known as the Spartacist Committee and the Spartacist Group. This source described the RCFI as being composed of former members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) who had split from the SWP and who were led by JAMES ROBERTSON. This source stated that this political unit has its main center in New York City, where it publishes "Spartacist" on a very irregular basis, but their formal meetings are held at least once a week.

A second source advised on March 4, 1984, that FARRELL DOBBS, National Secretary of the SWP, sent a letter to all SWP branches in February, 1964, in which he advised that the expelled leader of a minority faction of the SWP, JAMES ROBERTSON, announced on February 10, 1984, that his faction would publicly criticize the SWP and had followed this with a public organ called "Spartacist" in which they attacked the SWP.

The July-August, 1964, issue of "Spartacist," in its masthead describes this publication as follows: "... published bi-monthly by supporters of the Revolutionary Tendency expelled from the Socialist Workers Party." This masthead sets forth that the editor of the publication is JAMES ROBERTSON, and its main address is Post Office Box 1377. General Post Office. New York, New York.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

DEACONS OF DEFENSE AND JUSTICE, INCORPORATED (DDJ)

An article appeared on page B-1 of the March 30, 1966, issue of "The Washington Post and Times Herald", a daily Washington, D. C., newspaper, captioned "Bogalusa Unit Plans Move to D.C.," authored by William Raspberry. A copy of the article is attached.

The article by Raspberry indicated that the DDJ planned to establish a chapter in Washington, D. C., and he questioned the plans for such a move. The article stated that according to Julius W. Hobson, "militant leader of ACT and a prospective Deagon," the move to the area, was due to increasing brutality on the part of police officers and the failure of officials to punish it. Hobson, according to the article, and that the Deacons could probably recruit as many as 200 to 400 men in the Washington, D. C., area, and it was Hobson's theory that Negroes must organize to strike back at brutal officers.

"The Washington Post and Times Herald," dated March 31, 1966, page A-20, contained a letter signed "Julius W. Hobson, Chairman of ACT and friend of the Deacons of Defence." In the letter Hobson denied that he had told Raspberry or any other newspaper reporter that Hobson thought the Negro citizens of the District of Columbia should arm and attack the policemen.

Bogalusa Unit Plans Move to D.C.

'Deacons' Protest Alleged Police Brutality Here

. By William Raspberry.

The Deacons for Defense and Justice, organized a year ago in Bogalusa, La., to retaliate for white attacks on Negroes, have been branching out and plan to establish a chapter here. Already they claim scores of active chapters in several Southern states. They reportedly are moving north as well.

The Deacons insist their. purposes are purely defensive—to protect the Negro community against white violence. Primarily they have operated in the South, striking back at the Ku Klux Klan and protecting Raspherry civil rights

Why are they coming to Washington, where demonstrators almost never are subjected to violence and where there has been no reported Klan activity?

According to Julius W. Hobson, militant leader of ACT and a prospective Deacon, it is because of increasing brutality on the part of police officers and failure of officials to punish it.

He blamed brutality for two recent jail-cell suicides and cited the case of a wedding party melee in south-Washington during east which seven persons, including four policemen, were injudge in that case "upheld the police before he even heard the witnesses." He said there have been "five or six people to die in jail," recently, and the only explanation we get is from the police who put them there."

NOT ONLY can Negroes not expect justice from officials in cases of brutality, sald Hobson, but "the middle-class Negro leadership acquiesces in this mistreatment by sitting on these committees." Hobson himself sat for two years on the Police Chief's Citizens' Adsory Committee, which during that time "took a hundred cases (of alleged brutality) and never did anything about them."

He finally quit the committee.

As to the Deacons, Hobson's theory is that since neither the Police Department, the courts nor the Complaint Review Board acts with sufficient vigoragainst allegations of police brutality, Negroes must organize to strike back at brutal officers.

It is a dangerous theory. It is one thing for a Negro in Bogalusa to take a shot at a fleeing car whose occupints have just fired into his home. It is quite anothe: for an armed group to ga running for a policeman because they have heard rum irs of brutality.

ASKED ABOUT the dan ger of a misguided attack or an officer who had used force to maintain a legitimate arrest, Hobson noted that the "police make a lot of mistakes; the people will make a lot of mistakes too." He didn't appear to be unduy bothered by the prospect.

Hobson said the Deacons jured. Hobson said the probably could recruit as many as 300 to 400 "good men" in the Washington area. It will be difficult to tell whether that estimate is high. While the Deacons operate more or less openly in Bogalusa, they have been inclined to secrecy in other areas.

> Capt. Thomas Herliny, head of the Police Department's Special Investigations Squad, said he was aware that officials of the Deacons for Defense had been to Washington and were scheduled to return this week. He said, however, that the information given him indicated that the Washington group would be essentially a fund-raising organization to support Deacon chapters in Chicago and elsewhere.

Herlihy said he had no knowledge of Minuteman activities in Washington, but for Hobson the fact that the FBI uncovered a Minuteman rifle range and training site last year in northern Virginia is reason enough for Negroes here to arm themselves. The Ming utemen are a militant group? who say they train themselves against a "Communist" takeover of the U.S.

Hobson on the Deacons

I would like to make the following observations about "Potomac Watch," William Raspberry's article appearing in the March 30 issue, and dealing with the organization of a D.C. chapter of the Dea- cons for Defense.

have told Mr. Raspberry or any other newspaper reporter that I think the Negro citizens, of D.C. should arm and attack the policemen of this city. However, I did say to Mr. Raspberry that I think there is widespread police brutality practiced with official sanction against the black citizens of this city. I further stated that the black community should organize to combat this brutality.

As to what the Deacons for Defense are going to do here, I refused to discuss that with Mr. Raspberry, and referred him to Ernest Thomas, executive vice president of the Deacons who is now in Chicago.

Chairman of ACT and friend

B. T. WOODARD Mayor, Town of Grambling

Greetings

To those of us who call Grambling home, as I have been privileged to do for the past 35 years, there is no place anywhere exactly like the Town of Grambling.

Many towns, of course, make a similar claim, but we of Grambling have the word of the many of the citizens of these other towns not to believe that there is a special something called "the Grambling spirit".

What this spirit springs from is not alone the scores of fine residences dotting the landscape here and there and the hundreds of fine citizens who reside

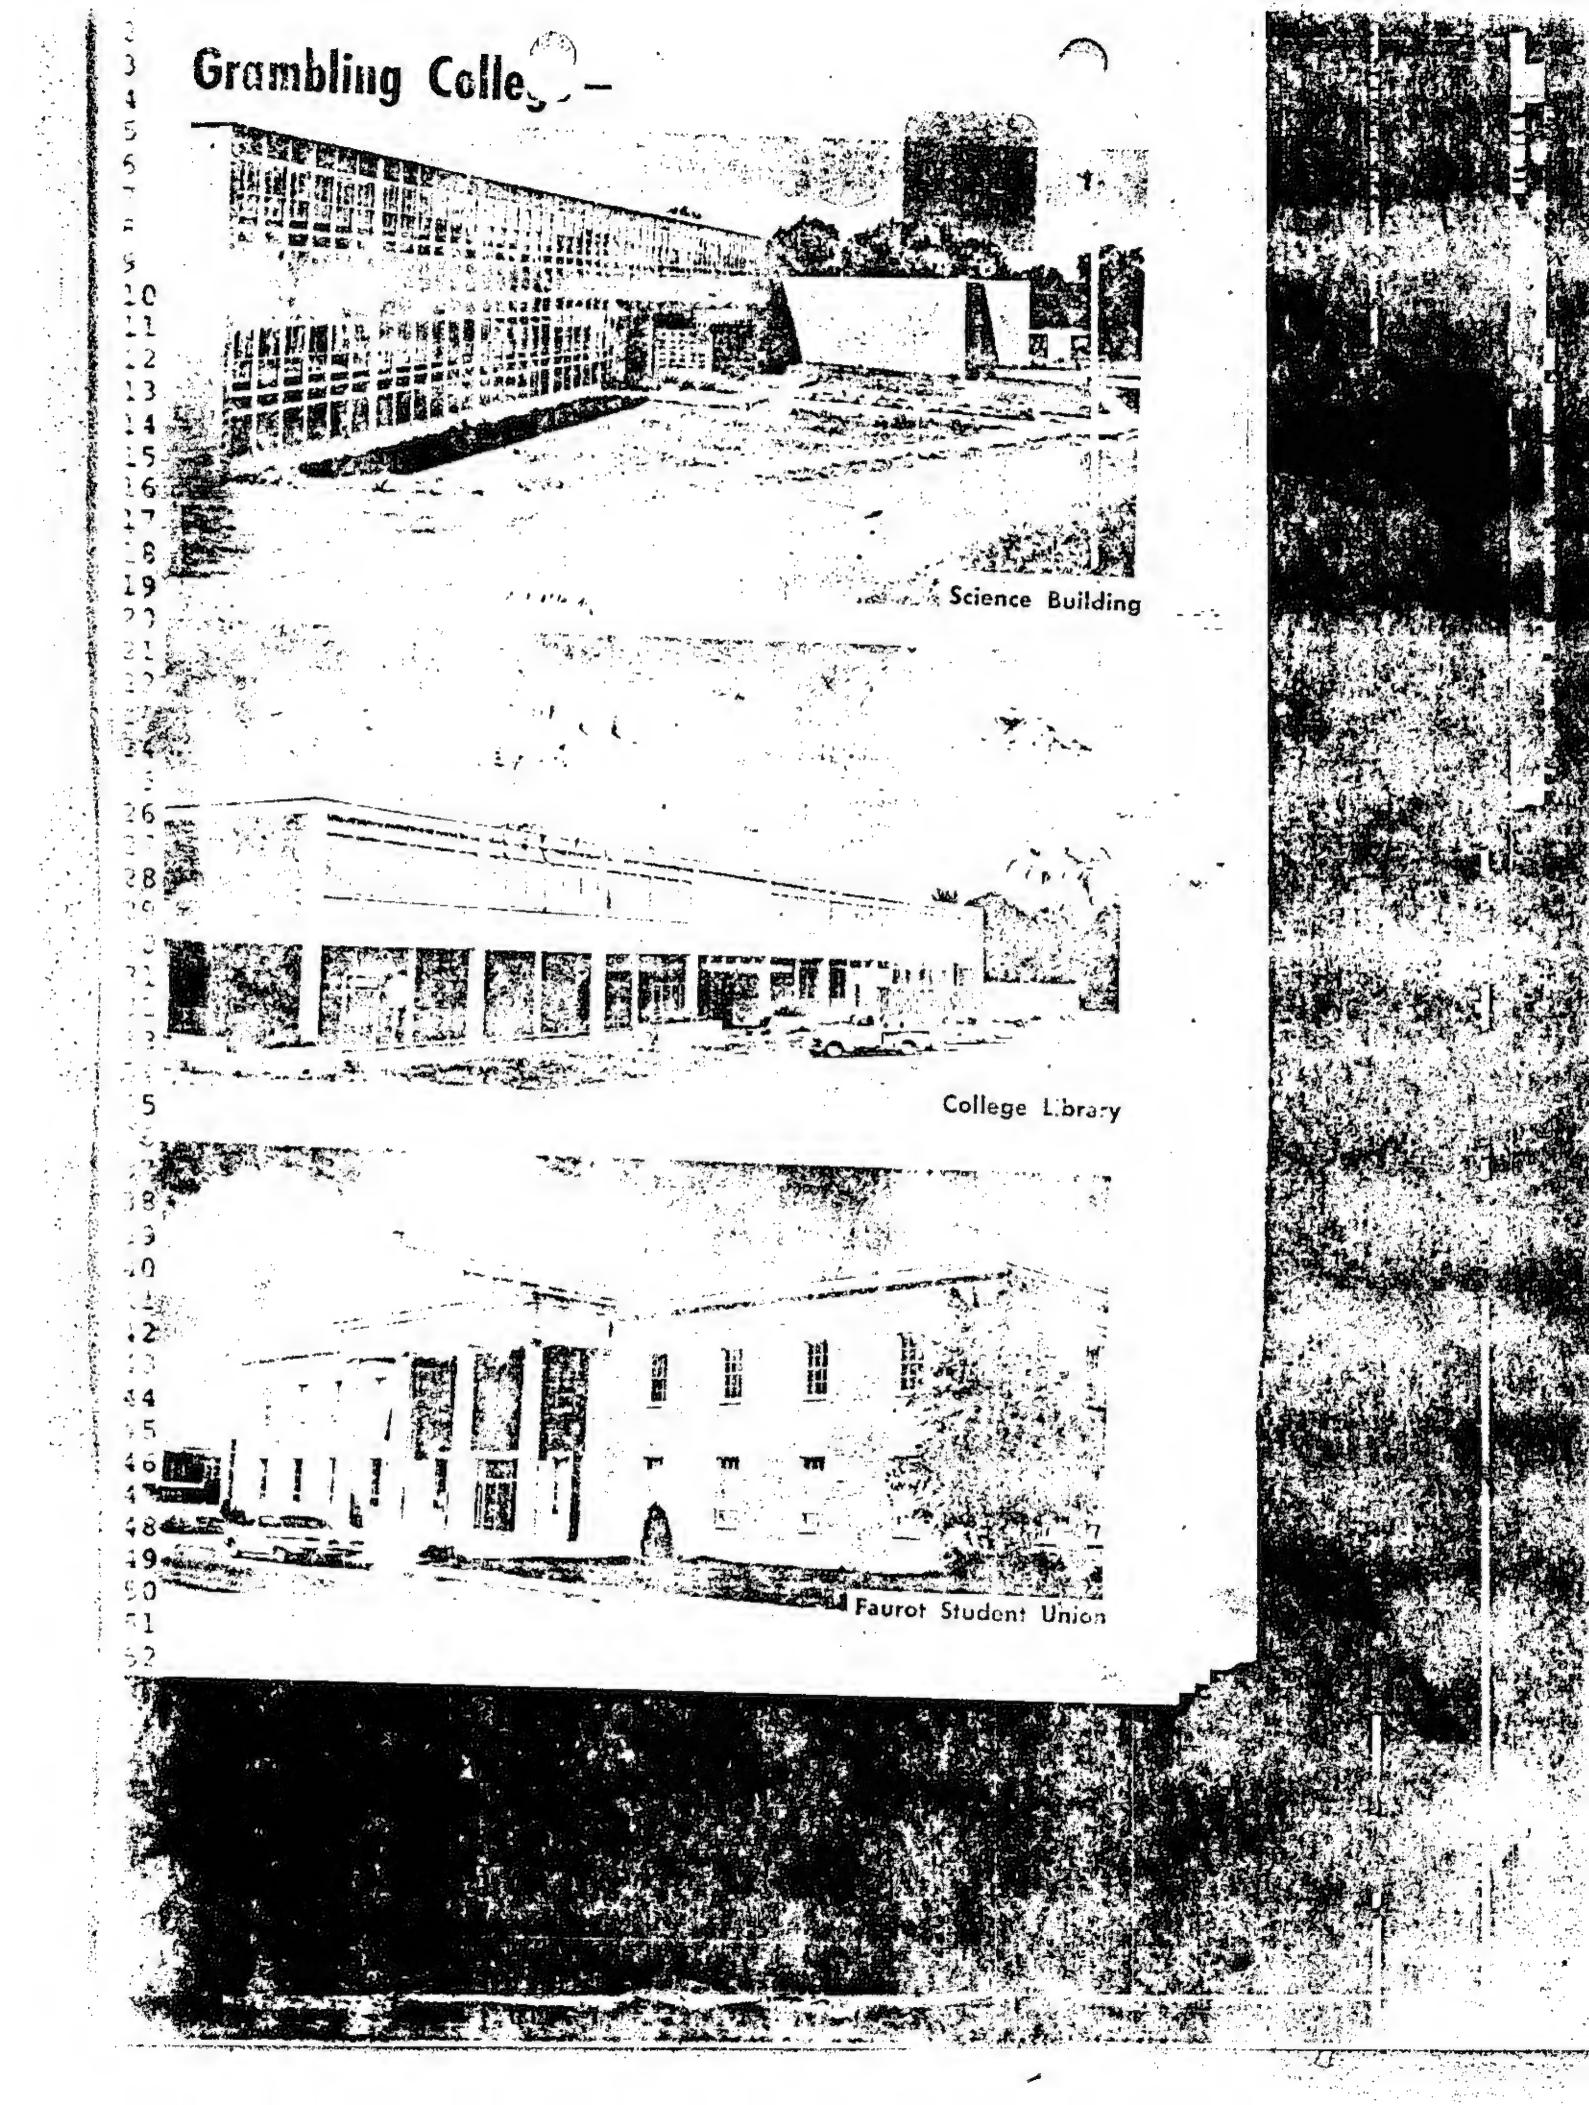

It springs not alone from the fact that Grambling College, considered by many as one of the most unique and fastest growing institutions of higher learning in America, is located here nor that it contributes in no small measure to the ebb and flow of Grambling life.

Nor does the spirit spring from the fact that Grambling is one of the few is. Negro incorporated towns in the nation, as distinctive an achievement as that Rather, we believe, the Grambling Spirit springs from a happy combination of all of these and, above all, from the happy existence of community-wide warm beartedness, cooperation, understanding, and service.

We do not hesitate, therefore, to tender you a warm welcome to the Town of Crambling. We think you will find that the Grambling Spirit compels us to take you to our hearts. We, in turn, hope that you will take us to yours.

Business Establishments —

A town is more than a _ .ce on a map. A town is more than a set of census bureau statistics. It is more than a location from whence someone came or to whence someone is going. It is more than houses and roads and institutions. A town is peoplepeople, human beings, living, working, learning, playing.

Crambling has a noteworthy record of being a people-centered town. The efforts of its leaders in the past were so directed, and all current plans are geared to making and keeping Grambling a good place for people to live.

Organizations like the Grambling Improvement Association are working continuously to insure good housing for Grambling citizens, to secure agencies and industries which will provide employment outlets, and to give direction to recreational development.

A thriving Federal Credit Union is working steadfastly to provide area citizens the opportunity to establish financial strength for themselves, and to provide a source of help in time of need.

Grambling College steadfastly lends its assist-Grambling Water Supply ance and leadership to all worthwhile community endeavors, and the Mayor and Board of Aldermen of the Town of Grambling work unccasingly to coordinate the efforts for betterment on the part, of all individuals and agencies and to sponsor those legal pathways to progress for which it is responsible.

In addition to an expanding city-maintained recreation park, the area abounds with good fishing and hunting regions for those who like these recreational pursuits. Swimming facilities are available in nearby Ruston and on the Grambling College-campus. Three standard movie theatres and one drive-in operate in the Grambling environs. Dozens of outstanding cultural attractions open to the general public are sponsored on the college campus each year along with many first-rate games in football, basketball, and baseball.

Social and fraternal groups of wide description and broad purpose abound in the community.

In regard to medical services, close ties have long been maintained between the Grambling College Infirmary and the Grambling Community. A hospital, three clinics, and numerous physicians, surgeons, and dentists are available in the Grambling area:

Continuous efforts are being made by the officials of the Town of Grambling, civic and educational agencies, and various leaders to the end that the people of Grambling may have life and have it more abundantly.

History Of Grambling

The beginnings of Grambling actually go back to the establishment of Lincoln Parish in 1873 from portions of Jackson, Union, Claiborne, Bienville and Ouachita parishes when cotton growing became increasingly profitable in the area and many modest farms were developed in the region.

The hirth of Ruston occurred in 1884 when a subdivision of 80 acre. belonging to a large landowner named Robert E. Russ was laid out as a townsite by the VS & P Railroad (Illinois Central) in exchange for a right-of-way through the Russ property. The VS & P mainline ran from Shreveport to Vicksburg and around the turn of the century one P. G. Grambling established a sawmill near the present site of Grambling. The Railroad established a spur and way-station to service the timber business and the stop was named for Mr. Grambling,

The sawmill soon went out of existence, but meanwhile several small businesses had been established, churches built, and in 1901, the North Louisiana Colored Farmer's Relief Association, made up of more than fifteen hundred persons from five parishes, set about establishing an industrial school. The Association contacted Tuskegee's Booker T. Washington and secured on August 4, 1901, the services of Charles Pr.Adams, who founded the Colored Industrial and Agricultural School of Lincoln Parish in the Allen Green Community just north of the present location of Grambling. The history of Grambling has been "linked almost inseparably with the growth and development of this school in the community.

By 1905 the industrial school was moved to its present site. In 1918 it became Lincoln Parish Training School; in 1928, it became Louisiana Negro Normal and Industrial Institute, a state-supported junior collège. In 1940 a four-year, degree-granting program was initiated at what was now to be called Grambling College. Meanwhile, more and more families began to cluster in the immediate vicinity of the village and the college, more businesses were started, a post office put in operation, and the town began to grow.

During the 1958-59 school year, the duly authorized Liberal Arts Program was put into effect. For the 1959-60 school year, the College was reorganized under the following divisions: Division of Applied Sciences and Technology, Division of Education, and Division of Liberal Arts. Beginning September, 1963, the College instituted the Division of General Studies.

In September, 1953, Grambling was incorporated under the Statue laws of the State of Louisiana. The first official meeting of the Mayor and Board of Aldermen were held October 1, 1953 for the Village of Grambling, Louisiana. The first officers were a Mayor, three Aldermen and Marshal, appointed by the Governor of the State of Louisiana.

In 1959, by proclamation of the Governor of the State of Louisiana, the Village was declared a Town, with a population of 3,144 citizens.

Since the incorporation of the Town, major bond issues have been floated for the establishment of water, sewerage and a town hall. Many other developments such as streets, street lights, natural gas, telephones, etc., have been initiated by the town.

The present officers of the town are a Mayor, five Aldermen, and a Marshal elected by popular vote. Appointed by the Mayor and Board of Aldermen are Public Utilities Commissioner, Treasurer-Clerk, Secretary-Tax Collector, and Street Commissioner. Also a Planning and Zoning Commission, consisting of nine persons.
